FINANCES

Credible documentary evidence of financial support must be provided before an I-20 form (for F-1 status) or a DS-2019 form (for J-1 status) can be issued. When requesting F-1 status, the applicant must prove that enough funds are readily available to cover the first year of expenses and should be prepared to prove that additional funds will be available for the duration of studies. Applicants for J-1 status must be prepared to show that funding is available for the entire J-1 program. All evidence should be less than six months old. Indicate the type of currency and current value in U.S. dollars. If evidence is not in the applicant's name, please attach a signed statement from the sponsor indicating the support that will be provided. Common evidence includes:

Bank Statement from checking, savings, stock holding, and/or certificates of deposit.

Bank letter on letterhead indicating date account opened, average balance, and current balance.

Scholarship or Sponsorship Letter verifying amount, source, and dates of award.
